THE FIRST MIGRAINE PILL OF ITS KIND

UBRELVY[®] is the first in a different class of medication for the acute treatment of migraine. Unlike older migraine medicines, UBRELVY is the first migraine pill of its kind designed to directly block the receptor for the calcitonin gene-related peptide (CGRP) protein believed to play a major role in migraine attacks by causing pain and inflammation.

ORAL NON-NARCOTIC PILL

Tell your healthcare provider about all the medicines you take, including prescription and over-the-counter medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements. Your healthcare provider can tell you if it is safe to take UBRELVY with other medicines.

UBRELVY WORKS DIFFERENTLY

Unlike older migraine medications that work primarily by constricting blood vessels, UBRELVY[®] directly targets the receptor for a specific protein believed to play a major role in migraine attacks.

This protein is known as a calcitonin gene-related peptide (CGRP), and it causes pain and inflammation when it attaches to sensory nerve endings.

CGRP ATTACHING DURING MIGRAINE

UBRELVY BLOCKING CGRP DURING MIGRAINE

UBRELVY is a CGRP-receptor antagonist, which means it is designed to directly block CGRP protein from attaching to your sensory nerve endings.

The most common side effects of UBRELVY are nausea (4%) and sleepiness (3%). These are not all of the possible side effects of UBRELVY.
